Policy Counsel/Associate or Senior Policy Counsel/Associate – Justice Reform & Hate Crimes

The Lawyers’ Committee for Civil Rights Under Law is one of the nation’s leading national racial justice legal organizations. Formed in 1963 at the request of President John F. Kennedy, the Lawyers’ Committee uses legal advocacy to achieve racial justice, fighting inside and outside the courts to ensure that Black people and other people of color have the voice, opportunity, and power to make the promises of our democracy real.

The Lawyers’ Committee seeks a talented, dynamic, and enthusiastic policy advocate with a demonstrated commitment to racial justice to serve as a Policy Counsel/Policy Associate or Senior Policy Counsel/Senior Policy Associate in the Public Policy Project. The successful candidate will thrive in a fast-paced environment and be flexible, creative, and comfortable working independently and within a team.

The incumbent will manage a portfolio focused on criminal justice reform, police accountability, addressing hate crimes, access to justice, the criminalization of poverty, and other related issues relevant to justice and safety for communities of color. Depending on the needs of the organization and the Public Policy Project, this portfolio of work may include other issues. In addition, the incumbent will develop strategies to advance legislative and administrative priorities and cultivate and manage relationships on Capitol Hill and among coalition partners.

This is a full-time, exempt position based in Washington, DC. The incumbent will work under the supervision of the Director of Public Policy. The position title will depend on the incumbent’s experience and educational degree (e.g., B.A., J.D., etc.). Regular travel is required (as COVID travel restrictions are lifted).

Specific Duties and Responsibilities:

- Analyze federal policy proposals and draft reports and white papers designed to influence policymakers and other stakeholders;
- Monitor key developments in assigned issue areas and identify opportunities for engagement and advancing the organization’s policy agenda;
- Develop and produce advocacy tools for various audiences concerning important criminal justice and anti-hate/anti-bias litigation and federal policies;

- Build and maintain relationships with congressional and executive branch staff to ensure that the principles of the Lawyers’ Committee mission are reflected in the policymaking process, including responding to questions from external sources regarding pending federal legislation and initiatives;
- Attend Congressional hearings, briefings, and meetings, and represent the Lawyers’ Committee in external meetings and briefings with congressional and executive branch staff;
- Work closely with colleagues across relevant Lawyers’ Committee units, including the Criminal Justice Project, the James Byrd Jr. Center to Stop Hate, and other internal Projects as needed, to help identify and pursue shared advocacy objectives;
- Draft testimony, talking points, and other materials for congressional hearings, meetings, briefings, and other public speaking engagements on criminal justice and anti-hate legislative, policy, and regulatory matters;
- Research and draft memoranda, letters and analyses of federal bills, and comments on proposed administrative rules and regulations;
- Plan and execute advocacy events, such as congressional briefings, panel discussions, advocacy days on Capitol Hill, and webinars to further advocacy goals;
- Work with communications staff to coordinate a focused communications strategy and to elevate relevant legislative, administrative, and executive activity in the media;
- Track and summarize legislation, regulations, and other policy developments using databases, as well as monitoring media, social media, and government websites;
- Lead and participate in national coalition meetings focused on criminal justice reform and stopping hate crimes; and
- Provide policy briefings and support for the President and Executive Director and other senior staff, including drafting written and oral testimonies and helping with preparation for other appearances before the executive branch and legislative officials.

Minimum Requirements and Competencies:

- Deep commitment to the advancement of racial justice and civil rights;
- Bachelor’s degree and a minimum of six years of work experience, preferably working on federal policy;
- Must be willing to register as a federal lobbyist;
- Working knowledge of the federal legislative, regulatory, and policy process (experience as a Congressional staffer, at a civil rights nonprofit, or at a federal or state agency a plus);
- Exceptional writing, oral and interpersonal skills;
- Strong analytical thinking and problem-solving skills;
• Strong organizational skills with superb attention to detail;
• Well-developed interpersonal skills, ability to build trust and credibility with partners, as well as Congressional and executive branch staff and officials;
• Ability to synthesize information and manage multiple priorities,
and follow through and complete assignments;
• Ability to multitask, take direction, and meet strict deadlines;
• Ability to work independently as well as part of a team; receptive to instruction and guidance from senior team members;
• Ability to be flexible, responsive, and a team player;
• Proficiency in Microsoft Office software and Internet research tools;
• Knowledge of Bluebook forms for legal citations is a plus;
• Demonstrated experience working with and for communities of color and/or low-income communities; and
• Willingness and ability to travel on a regular basis for meetings when deemed safe.
